Sermons in Stone: The Stone Walls of New England and New York

Greenfield Hill Garden Club and The Friends of the Fairfield Public Library present Susan Allport, author of Sermons In Stone: The Stone Walls of New England and New York.

Sermons in Stone* is the surprising and fascinating social history of the stone walls of New England and New York from the earliest fences by the colonists to the current day.

Allport is an award-winning writer specializing in science, travel, and food. Her books include The Queen of Fats; The Primal Feast; A Natural History of Parenting; Sermons in Stone; and Explorers of the Black Box. She became interested in stone walls when she bought a property in Westchester County that was divided by stone walls.
