Piano Repertoire in the Age of Romanticism

Sunday, October 27, 2019 • 2:30 PM
Memorial Room, Main Library

The 19th Century bore witness to a remarkable series of changes in the evolution of western music. Piano repertoire serves as an elegant microcosm of this phenomenon. Beethoven's death in 1827 gave way to great melodists including Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Chopin and Liszt. During this program, Professor Gil Harel will analyze various piano works from the 19th century, discussing their musical attributes and demonstrating how they epitomize the spirit of romanticism.

Presenter:
Gil Harel, PhD

is a musicologist, music theorist and award-winning professor currently teaching at Naugatuck Valley Community College. A Fairfield resident, his commitment to community-oriented learning spans many years. He has been a featured speaker throughout Connecticut, New York and Massachusetts.

All programs are free and open to the public. Limited seating.
