Writing Contest

Submissions Due: Friday, February 21, 5:00 PM

Writer's Reception and Reading:

Thursday, March 12 • 6:30 PM

Memorial Room, Main Library

Adult and teen writers are invited to create a work of writing in any genre, from poetry to prose, fiction to non-fiction, for the One Book One Town (OBOT) Writing Contest. Share an unpublished work of 750 words or less on the following theme:

The impact an animal has had on your life

Entries will be separated into three judging categories: middle grade (grades 6-8), high school, and adult. All entries must be submitted as an attachment in PDF format to obot@fplct.org. Please make sure your entry contains only the title of the work, not the author's name. Also, please include a separate cover sheet with the author's name, contact information, age category, word count and title of the piece.

Winners will be notified by March 5 and will be invited to a special reception with One Book One Town author Christopher McDougall on March 9. Winners will also be invited to read their works at the Library.

All programs are free and open to the public. Limited seating.

Register online at fairfieldpubliclibrary.org, or call 203-256-3160.
