Therapeutic Riding

Thursday, February 20, 2020 • 6:30 PM
Rotary Room, Main Library

Learn how equine-assisted activities positively benefit the cognitive, physical, emotional and social well-being of individuals with special needs with Lynn Peters, Registered Instructor and Volunteer Director of Pegasus. Therapeutic riding can produce remarkably improved mobility, balance, posture, coordination, language development, behavior control and concentration. Parents or caregivers of individuals with special needs or difficulties will find this program especially informative.

Pegasus is a PATH (Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship) International Premier Accredited Center with three chapters throughout Putnam and Fairfield counties. Pegasus serves students ages four and up, including a program for military Veterans. Pegasus Therapeutic Riding is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

All programs are free and open to the public. Limited seating.
