Decluttering in the New Year

Tuesday, February 25, 2020 • 6:30 PM
Rotary Room, Main Library

Do you get stressed by the mess? This program will address why we have clutter and how to deal with it. Learn how to create finished, organized systems in order to be more productive. The relationship between time and organizing will be examined as will the differences between being clean and neat, and being organized.

House to Home Organizing partners are members of NAPO, (National Association of Productivity and Organizing Professionals), helping people take back control of their space and their lives.
