Thursday, September 24, 2020
7:00 PM

Fairfield Public Library celebrates the 50th Anniversary of one of the most iconic television shows of the 1970's: The Partridge Family. Join us for a virtual evening of nostalgia and childhood memories.

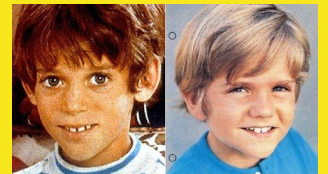

Our tambourine shakin' program includes:

- casting (nobody knew Shirley and David were related!; Chris 2.0)
- episode themes (racial justice, feminism, fame)
- famous guest stars (Luke Skywalker's first kiss was Laurie!)
- albums and music (wait, Danny didn't really sing??)
- merchandise mania (led the way for our current "merch" obsession)
- David's meteoric pop-star career with Cherish author Louise Poynton
- everyone's lives post-Partridge
- memories & memorabilia - bring your stories & keepsakes to share!

Fairfield Public Librarians and lifetime Partridge Family fans Mary Coe and Philip Bahr invite you to a very special library program celebrating the grooviest singing family ever - The Partridge Family.

Please register so we can send you the link the day of the event.

Our special guest is Louise Poynton, author of Cherish: David Cassidy - A Legacy of Love and the new podcast series The David Cassidy Connections.
