

BFFs: Man and Dog in the Middle Ages

Virtual Program

Wednesday, July 14, 2021, 7:00 pm

Join us for a virtual presentation featuring man's best friend. Through medieval artworks, some from The Met's Cloisters Museum, discover how different breeds of dog remained humankind's constant companion in the castle, in the fields, and on the hunt, even if that hunt was a fantasy of chasing a unicorn.

Presenter: Michael Norris

Mike got his BA in classics from the University of California at San Diego and his MA in classics and Ph.D. in art history at the University of California at Santa Barbara. He spent twenty years at the Cloisters Museum and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and has lectured on trips all over the world. He lives in Teaneck, New Jersey.
