

In-Person: So You've Always Wanted to be Published

Thursday, November 18th, 2021

6:30pm - 8:00pm

Longtime trade book publisher turned author, collaborator, screenwriter, literary agent, book coach, and book producer Gary M. Krebs (GMK Writing and Editing Inc.) answers your most pressing questions regarding the world of book publishing today, including fiction, non-fiction, and even licensing your work. Attendees learn how to get started on a book project, from creating a Vision Statement and Table of Contents to understanding the distinctions among the myriad types of publishing available today: self-publishing, hybrid publishing, and traditional publishing. Discover what literary agents and acquisitions editors look for--as well as what turns them off--and how to ensure your final work fulfills your vision.
