

Writing & Mixed Media Contest

Submissions Due: Sunday, March 6, 5:00 PM
Virtual Reception and Reading:
Tuesday March 15, 6:30 PM

TJ Klune's story celebrates found family and shows us that what makes a family is the love we share. In words of 750 or less or through an artistic format of your choosing, share a story about what makes your family special to you.

Please submit written works in PDF format. Artistic media should be submitted as a jpeg for still images or as a link for video format. Please one submission per entrant. This contest is for middle school and high school students and adults. Be sure to include the following with your submission:

- Name
- Age category (middle school, high school, or adult)
- Email address
- Phone number

Entries can be submitted to obot@fplct.org. Contest winners will be notified before the reception and will be invited to read and display their works. There will be a winner chosen for each age category among the writing submissions and a winner for each category among the artistic submissions.

The One Book One Town book is chosen by a committee of members of the Fairfield Public Library, the Pequot Library, Fairfield University, Fairfield University Bookstore, Sacred Heart University and the Fairfield Public Schools. One Book One Town is made possible through the sponsorship of the Friends of the Fairfield Public Library, the Fairfield Public Library, the Pequot Library, Sacred Heart University and Fairfield University.
