

Every Color Has a Story:

History on the Palette

Virtual Event: May 10, 2022, 6:00pm

Do you know the history of the colors in your world? All the tints, hues, dyes, and shades of the colors around you can be traced back to a specific point in history - and the stories they tell are amazing!

Which came first – the fruit orange or the color orange? Was Lincoln Green named after Mary Lincoln? This illustrated lecture will share with you the powerful - and colorful! - history of color.

Presenter Laura Keyes will be delighting audiences with her colorful presentation virtually on May 10, 2022 at 6:00pm. Register Online.

Laura Keyes graduated from UW-Madison with a Master's Degree in Library Studies, and has been presenting on historic topics for over ten years. She enjoys researching literary symbolism, and is contracted to write a book on that subject. In her non-existent spare time, Laura is a wonderful baker and accomplished vocalist. Laura is currently a Library Director in Central Illinois. For more information visit: www.LauraFKeyes.com or <https://www.facebook.com/HistoricVoices>
