

REINCARNATION: a virtual program with Sydney Sherman

Monday, June 13, 2022
6:30 pm

Acclaimed Connecticut author Sydney Sherman returns with a new seminar that examines the theory of reincarnation. Since the beginning of time, people have experienced strange memories and feelings of déjà vu. Sydney will share how the idea of 'past lives' has been studied throughout the ages, and how recent science may have brought a plausible explanation and possible evidence to support an alternate life that transcends the 'one body, one life' philosophy.

Sydney Sherman has more than four decades of educating others. She is a rational voice in a sea of false paranormal claims. Her hope is that each of us can determine the reality of the afterlife in a rational and scientific way. As a career registered nurse, her mission is to promote a greater understanding of death and the energies of life.
