How to Pay for College

Tuesday, October 11, 2022, 6:30 PM
Rotary Room, Main Library

While there are many different ways to finance higher education, parents often feel like they need to choose between risking their retirement or burying their children in debt. This presentation explores efficient ways to save for college, the difference between federal and institutional financial aid, different types of funding and grants, alternative payment options, high-income household planning, new 2022 tax changes, strategies to find a college that fits your budget, and how COVID-19 has affected financial planning for college as well as financial aid.

For parents and teens. Registration Required
