

FROM THE 9X EMMY AWARD WINNING DIRECTOR JENNIFER BOYD

THURSDAY,
JANUARY 19TH
6:30 PM
Fairfield Public Library
Rotary Room

Join us for this truly special event
- a screening of the powerful documentary The Street Project, the inspiring story about global, citizen-led fight to make our streets safer. There will also be a panel of guests who will discuss the issues raised in the film after the screening.

Razul Branch, cycling advocate, Bikeport Co-op, the Exec Director of the Bridgeport Arts & Cultural Council, Co-founder of I Luv BPT.

Thomas Broderick, an 8th grade social studies teacher and an advocate for more housing and safer streets in Connecticut.

Moderator: Doug Hausladen serves as the Executive Director of the New Haven Parking Authority and on various boards and commissions including the Greater New Haven Transit District.

Kerri Ana Provost, writes on the Real Hartford blog She maintains the Pedestrian Death
Map showing sites where cyclists and pedestrians have been killed in Connecticut.

Special thanks to our partners Stratfield Village Association and Bird Scooters; also thanks to Sarah Roy (Livable Streets Advocate).
