Radical Connecticut tells the stories of both everyday people and well-known figures whose work has often been obscured or dismissed. Andy Piascik's book, co-authored with Steve Thornton, includes narratives of social movements that have changed our state and country for the better. It features people from all walks of life who joined the struggle for freedom and equality, with a fresh look at history that can offer hope and spark engagement for an increasingly complex world. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing.

Andy Piascik is a Bridgeport native, long-time activist and award-winning author. He has written four books and writes for many publications and websites.
