

"It's a Great Lecture, Charlie Brown!"

Special Event with Dustin Pari
Wednesday, October 30th * 7:00 pm

Fairfield Woods Branch Library happily welcomes back Dustin Pari for this inspirational Halloween program! Taking a closer look at a Halloween classic, Dustin examines the history of the Peanuts cartoon special "It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown," with a focus on the themes represented throughout the show, some behind the scenes stories of the program's creation, and a deeper dive into the characters themselves. If you are looking for a lecture that is a real treat, join Linus in the pumpkin patch and check this one out.

Dustin Pari may be best known as a paranormal researcher and lecturer due to his numerous appearances on such television programs as Ghost Hunters, Ghost Hunters International, and Destination Truth. He has journeyed up and down the road time and time again appearing here, there, and everywhere. Though a well-respected and highly regarded staple of the paranormal event and lecture circuit, Dustin also delivers his entertaining and educational paranormal presentations to colleges and libraries across America.
