Join us for this informative program with the Connecticut Humane Society! Bad weather, injuries, short winter days: these are just a few of the many reasons pets may not get enough exercise and become bored. Keeping pets entertained is important for their physical and mental health. Without enough activity, boredom can quickly turn into destructive behavior. So, what can you do to curb your pets' boredom and keep them happy and healthy? During this program, different tips and tricks to keep all types of pets active will be discussed. From snuffle mats to pet piñatas, and potted cat grass to braided rope toys, there are great ideas for everyone!
