

Gmail With Gemini AI

with Gary Webster

Monday, February 23rd, 2026

6:30pm - 8:00pm

Fairfield Woods Branch Library

Google has introduced their basic version of AI called Gemini for everyone to use. With Google's Gemini AI baked in to your inbox, you have AI right where you need it, connecting Gmail to Calendar and Google Docs for better assistance. Gemini can summarize email threads, find info from your Google Drive files, and create events in your Google Calendar, just to name a few tasks. Now that you have it, come see how to use this powerful array of productivity tools. Bring your devices and be ready to sign in to your Gmail account!

Presenter Gary Webster is a dynamic technology integrator, industrial designer and certified teacher, teaching technology and design in the classroom. With over 15 years' experience, he's taught web design, page layout, podcasting, movie making and photo editing at Southern Connecticut State University.
